

Will said to his Mammy

Robert Jones

Will said to his mam- my That he would go woo, Scarce- ly was he wed- ded, Full a fort- night's space, All you that are bach'- lors, Be learn'd by cry- ing Will,

Will said to his mam- my That he would go woo, Fain Scarce- ly was he wed- ed Full a fort- night's space, But All you that are bach'- lors, Be learn'd by cry- ing Will, When

5

Fain would he wed, but he wot not who. Soft a- while my But that he was in a hea- vy case. Large- ly was he When you are well to re- main so still, Bet- ter for to

- would he wed - but he wot - - not - who. Soft a- while my
 - that he was - in a hea- - - vy - case. Large- ly was he
 - you are well - to re- main - - so - still, Bet- ter for to 10 lam- my, Stay, and yet a- bide. He like a head- ed, And his cheeks look'd thin: And to re-tar- ry, And a- lone to lie, Than like a lam- my, Stay, and yet a- bide. He - like a fool, head- ed, And his cheeks look'd thin: And - to re- pent tar- ry, And a- lone to lie, Than - like a fool fool, as he was, re- plied: In faith chil have a pent he did thus be- gin: A fig for such a wife, a fool with a fool to cry: A fig for such a

15

- as he was, - re- - plied: In faith chil have
 - he did thus - - be- - gin: A fig for such a wife, a wife,
 - with a fool - - to - cry A fig for such 20 wife, a wife, O what a life do I lead For With a With a wife, a wife, O what a life do I lead For With a wife With wife in my bed I may not tell you, O there to have a wife, a in my bed I may not tell you, O there to have a wife, a wife, wife, a wife, O tis a smart to my heart, Tis a a wife, a wife, O tis a smart to my heart, tis a rack rack to my back And to my bel- ly.

25

30

to my back And to my bel- ly.